11.5 Consider Permission to Dispose of Obsolete/Unusable Furniture, Equipment and Textbooks

Description

From time to time it is necessary to declare certain District Owned equipment and textbooks as surplus. The items are in poor condition, obsolete, or damaged beyond repair. In order to dispose of any District purchased item, they must be declared 'surplus' by the Board of Trustees.

The items that are not usable will be disposed of properly. The additional furniture, equipment and textbooks will be stored at the warehouse and offered for sale at a later date. Proceeds of the sale will be deposited into the General Fund. Those items that not sold will be donated to other public agencies or non-profit organizations. Non-saleable items will be disposed of appropriately.

Recommendation

The Administration recommends that the Board of Trustees declare the attached items surplus property as required by the California Education Code Section 39520.
